An Overview of OSHA's Respiratory Protection Program: The Role of the Occupational Health Nurse

Earn CNE as you learn with a 90-minute, self-paced, 10-module online program designed to help you polish your respiratory protection competencies and have the highest performance as your organization's Respiratory Protection Administrator. Developed with a NIOSH grant, a team from AAOHN, AOHP, ANA and ABOHN designed the program to help you ensure you are meeting the Federal OSHA Respiratory Protection Standard (1910.134 CFR). In addition, you'll find every respiratory protection reference and resource you've ever needed in one convenient location - available now at http://rpp.aaohnacademy.org/
